A Flash from Our Week

Reading: Nonfiction

We will continue working on nonfiction reading strategies. This week we will practice with a story in our book. We will use strategies to organize information.

Math: Groups

Group A is will finish time this week. Encourage them to read the clocks and tell you the time. Groups B and C are working on graph skills. Group D will begin addition and regrouping! I sent an IXL email! Use IXL to practice their topics!

Social Studies: Unit 3 Economics

We will take our History test on Monday. Then we will focus on economic skills! We will organize needs and wants.

Science: Unit D Ch. 2 Weather

We are still focused on weather! We will do some demonstrations and experiments this week to look closely at the tools used to measure weather.

Religion: Ch. 16 Preparing for Eucharist

This week we will continue to look closely at the Eucharist. We will discuss how and why Jesus gave of himself to save us.

Joins us for Adoration at 8:45am on Wednesday mornings.

Notes from Captain Teacher:

I can't believe that Open House is THIS SUNDAY!! I am so excited about all the fun changes! I hope to see all my Super Kids! Please have your child wear their yellow Tuesday shirt! Remember that this event is to showcase how amazing our school and its students are. Please encourage students to be on their best behavior as they move through the school and show off all their hard work.

Valentine's Day Brunch is 2/13! A Sign Up Genius will go out this weekend and please help where you can. Students can bring Valentine's Day treats to pass out to their classmates.

Author Suzanne Selfours will be video chatting with our class on March 17th! She has sent us an order form for her books and anyone who orders will receive signed copies of her book! Orders can be placed online or with a check and form. They are due no later than 3/16.

Snapshot from last week!

We had so much fun on our 100th Day! I LOVED all of the creative shirts! They did 100 exercises, made a tower with 100 cups and even put 100 cereal pieces on a string! We were very busy! We worked on our self-portrait project (thank goodness for Mrs. Seger's creative assistance!) and they will be on display for Open House. We have one Stanley who made it back so far! He shared his adventures in California! Stanley should return to your house soon. Please send him in as soon as you get him!
