

St. Joseph Catholic School is a Catholic community that helps all persons grow to the fullness of their potential and in faith and knowledge

A Flash from Our Week

Reading: Nonfiction

Our new story is Hungry Little Hare. We are continuing using our nonfiction skills to decode and find information. We will also be working on Author's Purpose.

Math: Groups

Group A and Group B are working on data and graphs. Groups C and D are working on addition and regrouping! I sent an IXL email! Use IXL to practice their topics!

Social Studies: Unit 3 Economics

We are still focusing on economic skills! We will be working on differentiating goods/services and producers/consumers!

Science: Unit E Ch. 1 Matter

In this unit we will be exploring matter. We will be using labs to learn about solids, liquids and gases.

Religion: Lent

We will continue to do almsgiving and prayer activities for Lent. We will also be talking about the two parts of the mass.

Joins us for Adoration at 8:45am on Wednesday mornings.

Notes from Captain Teacher:

A field trip form went home Thursday for a play put on by SMCC. I am only allowed to take 2 chaperones so I have taken the first two forms with payment. I no longer need any chaperones. Please complete the form and send it back with payment by 3/2. Students are to wear their colored Tuesday shirt with uniform bottoms.

Dine to Donate Day is 3/3 at Erie Restaurant! Hope you are able to make it!

We have mass this Friday! Please encourage practice if your child has a reading.

Author Suzanne Selfours will be video chatting with our class on March 17th! She has sent us an order form for her books and anyone who orders will receive signed copies of her book! Orders can be placed online or with a check and form. They are due no later than 3/16.

Snapshot from last week!

This week was super short due to snow days but we packed in lots of excitement! We worked in the lab to discover matter in solid and liquid form! Fat Tuesday was super busy! We did an activity with 8th grade to prepare for Ash Wednesday! Student Council surprised us with an ice cream party! We had music with Mr. Engelmann and sang along with a recording of the song!
